The musical score is written on five systems of staves. The first system consists of a single treble clef staff with a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a common time signature (C). It contains three measures, each with a single half note. The second system consists of two staves joined by a brace on the left. Both staves have a treble clef, a key signature of one sharp, and a common time signature. They contain a complex melodic and harmonic passage with many beamed notes and rests. The third system consists of a single treble clef staff with a key signature of one sharp and a common time signature, containing a melodic line. The fourth system consists of two staves joined by a brace on the left. The top staff has a treble clef, a key signature of one sharp, and a common time signature, and contains the lyrics "We are the boys, We are the girls of" written below the staff. The bottom staff has a bass clef, a key signature of one sharp, and a common time signature, and contains a melodic line. The fifth system consists of two staves joined by a brace on the left. Both staves have a treble clef, a key signature of one sharp, and a common time signature, and contain a complex melodic and harmonic passage with many beamed notes and rests.

all the Pub-lic Schools. We have a Red Cross job to do, to furn-ish all the tools; So many fathers. brothers too, may have a chance to live When wound- ed on the bat - tle field, they'll live be- cause we give.

Noble the deed it is, though small, the gift of aught we bring,
Whether of time or talents too, or any loving thing.
For love for fellow man gives hope, where hope before had fled,
And many men will live again, that little gifts have fed.
